Helpful Tips and Information:

IDENTIFICATION

Don't forget your Passport! It should be valid through your return date with at least two blank pages. It's recommended to travel with a passport with 6 months validity after your return date, since many countries are requiring this and can change their policy at any time without notice. It's always good to take a scan or make copies - take one with you and leave one at home in a safe place just in case.

WHAT TO PACK

Dress Code/Packing: Restaurant dress codes at Secrets Maroma Beach range from "Beach Casual" to "Daytime Casual" to "Casual" and "Casual Elegance" (see full description on the Restaurants/Bars/Dress Code Information sheet in this mailing). Most dinner restaurants have a "Casual Elegance" dress code and require long pants for men.

March in the Riviera Maya averages a daily temperature of a high of 84F/low of 70F with only about 1.4 inches of rain in the month, and most indoor spaces are air-conditioned and can be chilly - it's a good idea to pack a light jacket, rain jacket or sweater.

Hat, sunglasses, sunscreen: Essential toiletries are available at the hotel - but expensive - so if you're checking luggage, pack a good sized bottle of sunscreen. The 3-1-1-rule (3 oz per container, 1 quart-sized bag, 1 bag per person) is still in effect (at the time of this writing) for liquids in your carry-on.

The voltage and plugs at Secrets are 120 volts AC, the same as used in the U.S., so no need to bring an adapter or converter.

CHECK-IN/CHECK-OUT TIMES

Check-In at Secrets is 3:00pm. If you arrive before 3:00pm feel free to store your luggage and explore the resort, go for a swim, or have lunch - your vacation has begun! Although the resort is All-Inclusive, the hotel will require a credit card upon check-in and will place a $100 per day hold on the card to cover any incidentals that are charged to your room (spa services, tours, etc.).

SECRETS SPA DISCOUNT

To book your spa service in advance and receive the 20% discount, take a look at the spa offerings on the Hyatt Inclusive Collection App or on the resort's website (QR code link to the right). Then email the Spa Manager anabel.manzo@secretsresorts.com with your desired service and appointment time. Please mention in your email that you are with the Atlantic President's Club 2026 group. The spa discount applies to regularly priced services only (cannot be combined with any other offers or specials - further restrictions may apply). Gratuities are not included, and should be based on the full price of the service before discount.
